Tartar Cagers Bow To Redondo Fives

The much improved Torrance Varsity dropped a heart breaking defeat to Redondo last Friday evening, with the final score being Redondo, 49; Torrance, 47.

High point honor goes to Chuck Miller of Redondo who scored 21 points for the Sea Hawks. Bill Baron and Chip Cope of Torrance both put in 16 points each for the Tartars. Chic Cope played for Redondo last year but he is now Torrance's property.

The Tartars missed their star right guard, Armies Dandoy, who was home sick in bed with the flu. If Dandoy had not been sick and scored his usual 10 points or more, the game results would probably have been in Torrance's favor.

BEE GAME

The Torrance - Redondo Bee game is one that the Tarbabe Fans won't forget for a long, long time. The game was played last Friday evening with the final score, Redondo 42, Torrance 34. This game was perhaps the fastest game the Bee's have played this year. Never once did it slow down. Duane Matton was the spark plug for the Tarbabe as usual. Duane was hurt in the second quarter, but he was sent back to play later in the third quarter.

Camino Cagers Defeat Ventura In Big Upset

In one of the prime upsets of the round ball season, the steady performing El Camino quintet gained new prestige by nipping the highly rated Ventura Pirates, Western States Conference leaders, 48 to 46. The non-conference clash was played in the winners' gym last Saturday night.

Right from the opening tip-off it was apparent that the high scoring Pirates were in for a real test. Camino's Bob Flanagan and Paul Held controlled both offensive and defensive back boards throughout the contest and thus foiled the visitors' fast break attempts.

With Held, Flanagan, and Willy Shea hitting the hoop well, the Caminotes built up a 15 to 8 margin after 11 minutes of play. However, Ed Millan, Ventura forward, sank three 15-footers in quick succession and Jim Crookom assisted with two buckets to even up the count.

The score was knotted at 20-all with 50 seconds left. At this point Millan picked off a wild Warrior pass and dribbled the length of the court to drop in a lay-up that gave the Pirates a two point edge at the half.

Ventura enlarged their lead to 27 to 20 early in the final half, and maintained the advantage until Flanagan's lay-up gave the

Marine Drafting Added to Camino College Offerings

Marine drafting and architecture has been added to the schedule of classes offered at El Camino College beginning February 1. Registration will be held January 29 through February 9.

Frederick Aber, experienced marine architect, will teach the class, to meet Tuesdays, and Thursdays from 7 to 10 p.m. Mr. Aber, now associated with the firm of Styles Clements, architects and engineers, served as designer and marine draftsman for the Navy and as planning engineer of the Long Beach shipyard. He was associate designer of the U.S.S. President Roosevelt, world's largest aircraft carrier.

Great jobs on defense were turned in by Jack Turner, who held the fabulous Ernie Hall to 9 points, and by Willy Shea. Both boys continually harassed the visitors by stealing their passes, and by their tricky guarding broke up many a fast-break-try.

Line-ups:

Ventura (48) El Camino (48)
Crookom (9) Held (14)
Millan (25) F Chambers (16)
Hall (9) C Flanagan (16)
Dunn (3) G Shea (3)
Smith (0) G Turner (4)
Halftime: Ventura, 22; El Camino, 20
Scoring subs: El Camino—Kubo, 1.
